TORONTO TIDINGS

Mrs. Alexander McKee and her daughter, Mrs. Gordon Garland, returned to their home in Tiverton, on October 24th, after a very pleasant visit to their daughter and sister, Mrs. John Buchan of over a week. The reporter regrets he missed seeing these good friends this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Corbieri and Mr. Mr. Herbert McKenzie motored down from Aurora, on October 27th, to call on relatives and friends here and take in our afternoon service. We were delighted to meet them again.

At the meeting of the Bridgen Literary Society held on October 25th, an unanimous vote of sincere condolence was passed and the secretary instructed to wait a message of sympathy to Mrs. George Wedderburn upon the recent death of her beloved husband. This society will miss Mr. Wedderburn's sunny smiles and, in justice to the bereaved widow, we may say that she was one of the most persistent and regular attendants on the society's membership roll.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Doyle have returned to their home here after their two weeks' holidays, which they spent at Clinton, Stratford, and points up that way.

In spite of the fact that his wife is being given all the comforts that can be possibly given, Mr. William Hazlitt loves to cheer her up as far as his limited resources will permit. On October 27th, he engaged Mr. Fraser Byrne and a friend to motor up to Gravenhurst to personally cheer her up once more. Mr. Hazlitt took along his sister, Evelyn, and Mr. Charles Elliott for company, and found Mrs. Hazlitt very cheerful and gaining in weight, which is a happy omen for her future.

One of the most enjoyable private social gatherings held among the deaf here so far this season, was pulled off on October 29th, when Mrs. F. E. Harris gave a delightful surprise party in honor of her husband's natal day. Upwards of thirty-five were invited and nearly all responded.

Mrs. Stanley B. Wright, of Bobcaygeon, was up in this city, on October 30th, and had tea with Mrs. H. W. Roberts, returning home next day. She is the same smiling young lady as of yore, but regret her calls are always so short.

On October 26th, Mr. John T. Shilton went down to Ottawa, where he gave an excellent address that evening on "Faust," before a large gathering of the deaf of the capital and country side. Next day he preached a very impressive and helpful sermon to a large audience.

Mrs. John Dean, of Nobleton, was a guest of Mrs. Harry Mason for a couple of days lately.

DEATH CALLS AGAIN

No sooner had the Angel of Death come into our midst and took from us our beloved Mr. George Wedderburn than he paid another visit inside a week and left us bereft of another good and beloved friend in the person of Mr. Frederick B. Parsons, and left another wide swath of sorrow and loneliness in its wake.

The late Frederick Bagshaw Parsons was born at Freshwater, Newfoundland, thirty-three years ago, and was the son of Mrs. May and the late E. H. Parsons. He attended the Halifax School for the Deaf, and after his graduation, moved with his parents to Toronto about five years ago, where he had lived ever since. Since coming to Toronto he had won the love and esteem of a large circle of friends, on account of his quiet, frugal and kindly disposition. He always took a warm interest in our social and religious affairs and was treasurer of our West end Sunday School, at time of his demise, and during his trusteeship was scarcely ever absent. Besides his widowed mother, he leaves one brother, Gordon, at home, and one sister, Mrs. George Noel, of Freshwater, Newfoundland. The funeral took place from his late home at 8 Shanley Street, on October 29th, to Prospect Cemetery, and was largely attended. The casket was almost hidden beneath a mountain of beautiful floral tributes. Our church sending one in loving remembrance. The Rev. Mr. Hunter, officiated, assisted by Mrs. J. R. Byrne as interpreter. A pathetic incident took place as when your writer called to see him a day before he went, he was seen to say smilingly "I am happy and waiting for My Saviour's Call."

Some day, some time our eyes shall see,
The face we loved so well.
Some day, some time our hands shall clasp,
Never to say farewell.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS

Mr. Cecil Murtell is helping his father in the latter's tailor shop, as a presser, but only temporarily, as he expects to secure another good position, but what wants to do, the writer does not know.

When Mrs. A. S. Waggoner went up to St. Williams to lead the service there, she was deeply impressed by the loveliness that enshrouds the Woodward old homestead and the beautiful surroundings.

Mr. John Richardson, who came out from Belfast, Ireland, two years ago, and settled in this city, is working at the Dominion Glass Plant and doing very well.

Our old friend, Mr. Harold Haldane, of Ottawa, called on Mr. and Mrs. Waggoner the other day, despite a heavy downpour of rain. We regret he could not stay very long, otherwise we would have royally entertained him. He is the same good fellow as he was in his youth.

Mrs. Waggoner had a very delightful time in Sarnia, when she went up to speak on October 20th, but was sorry to find the mother of Mrs. Henderson had been quite ill, but was able to sit up for a while when she was there. Through the kind invitation of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kresin, of Port Huron, she and Mrs. Henderson were invited for tea on the 18th, where they had a lovely time and where Mrs. Waggoner remained over night. One pleasing feature of Mrs. Waggoner's meeting of her old schoolmate, Mrs. Culver Bowlby, of Simcoe, who was then visiting her sister, Mrs. Henderson. Mrs. Bowlby is a refined lady, fond of telling stories on tobogganing, skating and other pastimes of bygone days. She has a poetical and fascinating soul and loves animals and scenic beauties.

GRAFTON GREETINGS

Mr. Thomas Dand is still working for Mr. George Bellamy, on the latter's dairy farm near Wicklow, and has been there since last April. Mr. Bellamy runs his widowed mother's large and splendidly equipped farm and is making it pay very successfully.

It may not be generally known that the beautiful three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Parker, of Colborne, is like her parents, also deaf. Little Jean is learning the sign-language as fast as nature will permit her.

After attending the Roberts meeting here, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gerow, of Peterboro, motored down to the Belleville school to see their son and daughter, who are going through the same educational routine as did their parents years ago. Along with Mr. and Mrs. Gerow went Messrs. Alexander and Joseph White, and their two deaf sisters, the Misses Julia and Margaret White, to see their old school.

Mr. George Bellamy, of Wicklow, was recently up on a visit to friends in Toronto, where he had a very nice time.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Waldron, who attended the Roberts meeting here on October 27th, are doing very well in Trenton, Arthur is still pursuing the carpentry trade, which he learned at the Belleville school. Mrs. Waldron was formerly Miss Dorothy Downs, of Ottawa, but who formerly lived in Germany. She is also a graduate of the Belleville school and a fine young lady. The Waldrons have been married six years, but have no children.

Mr. Thomas Dand, of Wicklow, went up to Peterboro, on October 23d, to witness a ploughing match, only to find it had been postponed to October 31st. He went again on the last of the month.

There passed away at Brighton, on October 8th, a pioneer deaf resident of this locality, in the person of Mr. Andrew Alexander, in the eighty-first year of his age. His wife was formerly Miss Elizabeth Brown.

In a well kept yet humble home two miles north of Grafton, there live two of our pupils of the Belleville school of the 90's, in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warner, who are living happily surrounded by their young son and daughter—two of the finest and well developed children that nature could conceive—who can master our language fluently, though scarcely in their teens. Mrs. Warner was formerly Miss Jessie Rutherford.

In spite of the fact that he is totally deaf and blind, Mr. Ephriam Brooks, of Brighton, is very cheerful at all times and at times is very witty, and has a remarkable memory and can recall happenings of ages past. We fully believe he and his wife will be greatly benefitted when the old age pension act is in working order—and that will be very soon.

The comfortable home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warner was the scene of a very happy gathering October 27th, when a large force of the deaf for miles around as well as locally foregathered in a "family reunion" and in the meantime Mr. H. W. Roberts gave two very striking and helpful addresses, one of which dwelt upon "God's rebuke to Saul."

PALGRAVE PARAGRAPHS

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jones, who has been ill with Whooping cough, is now herself again.

Miss Clara Hartley and her parents, of Milton, were over to this burg lately, and took home a truck load of good potatoes.

Mr. John C. Zimmermann has finished his contract work at Orangeville, and is now on a new job at carpentering at the Tottenham Creamery. Jack has been a very busy man all summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jones and children were visiting relatives in Toronto, on October 20th, but did not attend the deaf service that afternoon, owing to their youngest child being unwell.

Miss Edna Zimmermann is now working for an aunt in Belgrave and likes it fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Averall, of Cookstown, motored over to this place on October 27th, in their newly purchased Chevrolet sedan and spent a couple of days very pleasantly with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Zimmerman and family motor up to Belgrave on October 11th, to visit Mrs. Zimmerman's parents, and to bid her sister, Mrs. Cecil Mines, and little child good bye prior to their departure on October 13th, for their home in Akron, O. On their way home, the Zimmermans called on Miss Lena Doubledee, of Wroxeter, for a few hours, and it was a pleasant meeting.

SARNIA SAYINGS

Mrs. Culver Bowlby, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jontie Henderson, and her sick mother, Mrs. Leitch, for the past month, returned to her home in Simcoe, on November 4th.

We are pleased to say that Mrs. Leitch, mother of Mrs. Henderson, is showing signs of improvement as time wears on. At one time she had two nurses in attendance.

On October 20th, Mr. and Mrs. John Mackie and the latter's father, Mr. Gilbert Leckie, called on the Hendersons to see Mrs. Leitch before returning to Dresden.

Dr. McMillan, father of Douglas McMillan, now at the Belleville school, was the successful conservative candidate here at the provincial elections, held on October 30th, and will represent West Lambton at Toronto.

We extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Welch, of Oil City, upon the birth of a second child, a boy, born on October 10th, and given the name of Samuel William Welch. Also congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stemplowsky, of Detroit, (nee Olive Johnston, formerly of Sarnia), on the birth of their second child, a girl, which came into this life on October 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Kresin, of Port Huron, very pleasantly entertained Mrs. Henderson, of this place, and Mrs. A. S. Waggoner, of Hamilton, during the latter's visit here lately.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

Miss Mary McBride, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton McBride, of Westmeath, was quietly and privately married at Bobcaygeon, on October 28th, to Mr. Harry Gamble, who comes from a prominent family. They will live near Sarnia hereafter.

Mr. Thomas Wright, who graduated from the Belleville school many years ago, is now living near Orland, Ont., with his ninety-six-year-old mother, who is now in rather delicate health.

The Schneider Bros., of Pembroke, and Hamilton McBride, of Westmeath, were among the crowd who attended Mr. Shilton's meetings in Ottawa, on October 26th and 27th.

Our old friend, Mr. Daniel W. Fleming, late of Craigleith, is now once more away out in sunny California, where he may stay for some time, if not permanently. He is located in San Diego, Cal., and no wonder he will be missed by his many friends here, whom he will learn about through the JOURNAL.

The large number of graduates of the Belleville school, who were there during the many years that Mr. William Douglas was automatically supervisor of boys and storekeeper, will learn with much regret of his death, which recently occurred at his fruit ranch near Peachland, B. C.

The Misses Sylvia Caswell and Helen A. Middleton, of Niagara Falls, enjoyed Sunday, October 27th, at the home of the former's father in Stamford.

Mr. A. W. Mason, of Toronto, seems to be one of the principal pallbearers among the deaf, for he has been asked to act and did so at the burials of the following: Charles Moore, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, John Moore, S. T. Greene, Charles Howe, William Terrell, Mrs. Ogilvie, M. F. Bridgen, Harry Mason, R. R. Riddell, Henry Moore, Philip Fraser, R. C. Slater, Charles Wilson and others.

FORT QU'APPELLE FACTS

While on his way home from Regina, Sask., where he had a conference with the Anderson Government, Mr. Archie MacDonald, of the Winnipeg School for the Deaf, stopped over here to see the LaBelle family recently. He said the Government had not as yet decided upon the site for the new Saskatchewan School, but plans were being prepared for its immediate erection.

Mrs. Noah LaBelle made several trips to Regina during the past summer, both by auto and train, and reports a delightful time on each visit.

Mr. John R. Newell, of Milton, Ont., was up this way lately to see his married daughter in Rock Glen, Sask., with whom he stayed for two weeks. Before returning east, he made short visits to friends in Moose Jaw, Regina, and other points, with whom he had a good time.

Miss Florence LaBelle, the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Noah LaBelle, has left to stay with relatives in the States for the winter. She is an expert at marcelling in the ladies tonsorial art, and will be much missed by her parents.

Mr. Theodore Wilkie, accompanied by three deaf friends, all living in Manitoba, motored up from Winnipeg recently and gave Mr. and Mrs. Noah LaBelle a cheery call for a few hours, then proceeded on to Saskatoon and other places of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah LaBelle have had many callers during the past summer, and were pleased to meet them. Mr. LaBelle has a flourishing business with widespread patronage and he and Mrs. LaBelle greatly appreciate the weekly visit of the newsy JOURNAL.

LONG BRANCH LOCALS

Miss Anna Urquhart, of Vankleek Hill, who is now teaching in Toronto, was the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Geo. J. Timpson, over the week-end of October 21st. She is a clever young lady.

Mrs. Charles Charlebois, of Peterboro, has returned home after a two-weeks' pleasant visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gagnon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Elliott have had their residence moved to another and better location, and on a new cement foundation.

The deaf, who work at the Good-year Rubber and Tire Works here, were obliged to take a week off lately, while the firm was stock taking.

Mr. H. W. Roberts, of Toronto, was out calling on his old friends here, on October 20th, and he noted much change and improvements in this burg.

Mr. Charles McLaren has just returned from a month's most enjoyable visit down at Mountain, Osgoode Sta., Winchester, Vernon, Kenmore Metcalfe, Smith Falls and other parts with relatives and amid the scenes of his youth. Though eighty-three years old, his many friends down there thought he was still young and very brisk. While away he had the pleasure of meeting our old friends, Mr. Harold Hall, of Perth, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Ford near Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gagnon, along with their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Keele Trewsley, of Toronto, enjoyed a most delightful motor ride to Mr. Gagnon's former home in Peterboro, where they spent the week-end of October 12th, with their many relatives. It was a charming spin through the country, just now in its autumnal beauty.

Neighbors of Mrs. George J. Timpson got together recently and swooped down on her home and presented her with a beautiful bedroom shade light on the occasion of her natal day. Mrs. Timpson was completely surprised and warmly thanked her friends for such a gift. A most enjoyable evening followed.

Mrs. Charles McLaren was pleased to receive a visit from her brother, Mr. William Theakston, who motored down from Thornbury with his family on October 16th.

When death comes it always brings along cutting pangs of sorrow to many loving hearts, and on July 9th last, Mrs. Charles McLaren felt the ironical inroads of these piercing pangs when he beloved brother, Mr. Smith Theakston passed from this scene at his home in Buffalo, N. Y., in his seventy-sixth year. His remains were interred in the Buffalo Cemetery. He leaves two sons, Charles and James, who live in Buffalo, and besides Mrs. McLaren, he also leaves three sisters and four brothers. Mrs. Thomas Harper, of Thornbury; Mrs. William Green of Heathcote; Mrs. A. Rusk, of Ravenna Joseph, of Regina; Richard, of Heathcote; Duke, of Clarksburg; and William, of Ravenna. His wife preceded him three years ago. There were twenty-two floral wreaths placed on the casket, an evidence of high esteem. The bereaved ones have our deepest sympathy. Mrs. McLaren also lost her brother-in-law, Mr. Thos. Harper, of Thornbury, in the same way on October 9th.

HERBERT W. ROBERTS.

SYRACUSE, N. Y.

Mrs. Mary F. Freeman Stephen, a graduate of the Jacksonville, Ill., School for the Deaf, in 1867, died on October 24th in her seventy-ninth year, at the home of her son, Frank A. Freeman, Massachusetts Avenue, Lundenberg, Mass. Mrs. Stephen was born in Scottsville, Ill., January 13th, 1857, the daughter of Samuel and Anna Dunham.

Besides her son, Frank, she is also survived by two other sons, Henry C. Freeman of Chicago, Ill., and George H. Freeman, of Greenville, Iowa; two sisters, Mrs. Celia Owens, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Mrs. George Galloway, of Woodstock, Ill., two brothers, John and Bud Dunham, of Oklahoma City, Okla., five grandchildren and one great granddaughter, the last named being the little daughter of Harry Freeman of Chicago, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Freeman, of 3920 Augusta Street.

The funeral was held on Saturday, October 26th, the interment being at Spencer, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Freeman, of Chicago, attended the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Freeman stopped off in Syracuse, N. Y., on the way home from Massachusetts, to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Root. They returned to Chicago, October 30th.

John Stewart, hearing son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, of Oneida, former pupils at the Rome, N. Y., school for the deaf, died Monday, October 23th, at his home in Vernon, N. Y.

He had suffered from diabetes for several years, and his demise, although rather sudden, was not wholly unexpected. Surviving are his wife, formerly Miss Thelma Merrill, and two little daughters, Phyllis and Jeanette. The funeral was held Thursday at Vernon. Rev. and Mrs. Herbert C. Merrill, of Syracuse, attended the funeral.

Portland, Oregon

Mr. Michael Schlachter passed away at a local hospital Sunday, October 20th, after an illness which lasted over a year. Being somewhat improved last spring, he was able to be around for some time, but got worse and returned to the hospital, where he kept sinking continually until the end Mike, as he is better known, had lived in Portland for over thirty years and was well known, but, sorry to say, few of the deaf knew of his death until after his funeral, which took place Tuesday, October 22d. He was a member of the Hope Lutheran Church.

A Stork shower was given for Mrs. Edwin Johnson, at the home of Mrs. Courtland Greenwald, Friday night, October 11th.

Mrs. C. Litherland gave a party at her home on Saturday night, October 12th, in honor of Miss Rena Gephart, of Lakeville, Minn. Miss Gephart has a few relatives in and around Portland, and latest report to the writer is that she has secured a job here at the Meris and Franks big department store, and likes Portland and will stay for good. She is a very fine and pleasant young lady.

A party was given at the Hope Lutheran Church on Saturday night, October 12th, in honor of Columbus' birthday. Mr. Ruby Spieler gave a fine account of Columbus' discoveries. Then a few games were played, the event ending with fine refreshments.

Mr. Frank and John Wondrack, brothers of Fred Wondrack, are now in Portland. The three brothers, if work is plentiful, will stay in the Rose City. They are from Ohio and all are fine young gentlemen. Fred Wondrack has been a Portlander for over a year. It is rumored that Mrs. John Wondrack will join her husband here in the near future.

Mr. Oscar Sanders, formerly of Seattle, is now at Vancouver, working at the Divines' prune farm. After he is done there, he says he will come to Portland to look for a job. He said that nearly nine tons of dried prunes were harvested on the L. A. Divine farm. It is considered the largest harvest on that place, which is always well managed, so as to yield a good crop every year.

Mr. James Weiss, who lost his hearing a year ago, is still taking lessons on the sign language, and is more and more interested in it, and is beginning to associate with the Portland deaf. He is a bright and good-natured young man, very much liked by those who know him. He will become a member of the Portland Frats, Saturday night, November 2d.

The Ladies of the S. F. L. Club gave a fine dinner on Wednesday night, October 16th, at the Multnomah Hotel, one of Portland's leading hotels, in honor of the ninth anniversary of its existence. All members and their husbands and escorts were invited. The program consisted of songs by Mrs. B. L. Craven and Mrs. G. O. Reichle. Speakers were Mr. C. H. Linde, J. O. Reichle, H. P. Nelson, R. Spieler and Mrs. Walker. Mr. Fred Wondrack told of his surprise to see such a fine and strong club, where a Frat and his wife can go to lodges in the same building. Mrs. Anthony Kautz was Chairman, with the aid of Mrs. J. O. Reichle.

The Hallowe'en Party on Saturday, October 26th, at the W. O. W. Temple, came off very successfully with over one hundred in attendance. Dancing and games were played. Mrs. Levy won a prize, for the finest step in a March. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell, of Tacoma, Wash., won prizes for finest and funniest costumes. Mrs. C. H. Linde held the lucky number for a fine Indian blanket. Visitors who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lowell, of Tacoma, Wash., Miss Rena Gephart, of Lakeville, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Rechert, of Scappoose, Oregon; Mr. John and Frank Wondrack, of Ohio, who may locate here. Mr. Bud Hastings was chairman. Refreshments consisted of pumpkin pie and coffee.

Mr. Hastings announced a party to be held at W. O. W. Hall, called an indoor picnic, on Saturday, December 14th. Also a Watch Night party at above hall Wednesday night, December 31st. All welcome.

H. P. N.

THANKSGIVING—1929

By the President of the United States of America.

PROCLAMATION.

At this season of the year, when the harvest has been gathered in, the thoughts of our forefathers turned toward God with thanksgiving for the blessings of plenty and provision against the needs of winter. They came by custom to look to the Chief Magistrate to set apart a day of prayer and praise, whereon their thanks as a united people might be given with one voice in unison.

God has greatly blessed us as a nation in the year now drawing to a close. The earth has yielded an abundant harvest in most parts of our country. The fruits of industry have been of unexampled quality and value. Both capital and labor have enjoyed an exceptional prosperity.

Assurances of peace, at home and abroad, have been strengthened and enlarged. Progress has been made in provision against preventable disasters from flood and pestilence. Enlightenment has grown apace in new revelations of scientific truth and in diffusion of knowledge. Educational opportunities have steadily enlarged. Enduring advances have been gained in the protection of the public health. Childhood is much more secure. New experience and new knowledge in many fields have been recorded, from which a deeper wisdom may grow. We should accept these blessings with resolution to devote them to service of Almighty God.

Now therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, President of the United States of America, do appoint and set aside Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November, as a day of national thanksgiving and do recommend that all our people on that day rest from their daily work, that they should extend to others, less fortunately placed, a share in their abundance, and that they gather at their accustomed places of worship, there to render up thanks to Almighty God for His many blessings upon them, for His forbearance and goodness.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the United States.

Done at the City of Washington, this fifth day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and fifty-fourth.

HERBERT HOOVER.

By the President:
HENRY L. STIMSON,
Secretary of State.

PASTOR AND HIS BRIDE ARE GUESTS AT SACKET HARBOR

Rev. and Mrs. John Lindsley were the guests recently of Major and Mrs. Robert W. Bowman at the Butler homestead, Sackets Harbor. Mrs. Lindsley, the daughter of Major H. S. Smith, chaplain, and the late Edith Gallaudet Smith, was married to Rev. Mr. Lindsley on October 7th at Barrytown, N. Y., by her father, Chaplain Smith, assisted by the bridegroom's father, Rev. Seth Lindsley.

Both Chaplin Smith and Rev. Mr. Lindsley were classmates of Major Bowman, who was a guest at the wedding. Mrs. Lindsley's grandfather is well known as the founder of the Gallaudet school for deaf-mutes in Hartford, Ct. She is well known in Watertown and Sackets Harbor, as her father was stationed at Sackets Harbor and acted as rector of the Harbor Episcopal church for several years. Rev. and Mrs. Lindsley will live at Oxford, Mass., where Rev. Mr. Lindsley had a parish.—Watertown Times.

Seek Court Games

The Shore Silents basketball team, composed of deaf-mutes, have organized for the winter of 1929-30. Games with all comers in Monmouth County or vicinity are requested.

To the humblest and the weakest
Neath the all-beholding sun,
That wrong is also done to us,

THE Dominion of Canada is made up of Provinces, and the Hudson Bay Territory with its bleak stretches of sparsely populated area, including Newfoundland and Labrador, where the majority of humans are Esquimaux. There is also the gold bearing territory of Yukon.

In our own United States, the divisions are called States, which combine with the Territories that have not attained the importance or dignity of statehood to compose the nation governed by the Stars and Stripes.

An offhand list of the Canadian Provinces is: Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba, Prince Edward's Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Saskatchewan, Alberta, British Columbia.

Institutions for the Education of the Deaf at present exist in Belleville, Ontario; Montreal (2), Quebec; Winnipeg, Manitoba; St. John's, New Brunswick; Halifax, Nova Scotia. The provincial government at Saskatchewan has announced that a school for the deaf will be built at Saskatoon. An appropriation of $800,000 has been made for that purpose. The site of the school will not be far removed from the university.

The school will consist of the following structures: School building containing 16 classrooms, an auditorium, gymnasium, playroom and swimming pool; industrial building to teach book printing, bookbinding, carpenter work, electrical work, tin-smithing, shoemaking, etc.; administrative building containing offices, library, reading rooms, dining rooms, kitchen, staff quarters and dormitories for the pupils; hospital, which would be a small, separate building, but adequate for the purpose.

This new establishment was suggested and pushed forward by the "Western Canada Association of the Deaf." The lion's share of the work of promotion was done by R. J. D. Williams, one of the Directors elected by the association at its late convention. He resides at Saskatoon, in the Province of Saskatchewan, and deserves to go down in history as the energetic and indomitable member of the association that influenced and enthused the lawmakers of the Province, and the general public, to the economic value of an institution for the deaf that would educate and train the "silent children" at a minimum of expense and travel in a vast and lightly populated region.

One of the Oakland, Cal., dailies has two 3-column half-tones of Douglas Tilden, the famous deaf-mute sculptor, in which he is pictured giving instruction to two of his pupils. One is depicted exhibiting a completed model, and the other is engaged on a statue called "The Potter."

OHIO

The annual social given November 2d by the Columbus Ladies' Aid Society was well attended and from the money seen in the cashier's cage it was a success financially. The booths were all well patronized, as they were presided over by smiling ladies.

Though the decorations were not so elaborate as formerly, the room looked attractive with its Hallowe'en dress.

As this was the date for the football game between the Ohio and the Michigan teams, many came from out of town. Michigan was well represented. The grounds for the game were muddy and a drizzling rain kept up through the afternoon. Michigan won 12 to 0, as their players were larger and stronger than Ohio's. We understand the Ohio boys put a good fight but failed to score. The boys haven't been very successful this season, for some reason.

Two newly married couples, Mr. and Mrs. Reinbolt, of Toledo, and Mr. and Mrs. Casper Jackson, of Columbus, were present receiving congratulations and looking radiantly happy. Mr. and Miss Reedy were also interesting visitors, as this was their first visit for 38 years. From the number of cars parked on the school grounds, the majority of the fifty from out of town motored to the city. Among those not residents of Columbus were Mr. and Mrs. A. Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. Shimeo, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Surber, Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Goodyear, Mrs. Ruth, Mrs. A. Horn, Mr. R. Conkling, Mr. Paul Hahn and sister, Henrietta, Messrs. C. Carman, E. Crossen, C. Holdren, W. Plahler, L. Nine, C. Fischer, C. Dille, Oprein, Hancher, Longfellow, C. Patterson, O. Kemper, L. Kauffman. Some of the men were former football and basketball stars while attending school here.

Through a Waynesburg, Ohio, news item we learned that Mrs. David Burwell (Catherine Peters) was run down and killed by an automobile near her home October 11th. She left four children and her husband to mourn the loss of a good mother and faithful wife.

Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Holycross have been at Piqua visiting friends. Mrs. Holycross came back, but left Mr. Holycross there for a time.

Mrs. Albert Horn, of Zanesville, spent a week in Piqua with relatives. Mrs. Horn's home before her marriage was in Piqua.

Mrs. Walter Wark, of Columbus, decided that she needed a vacation and took herself to Detroit, Toledo and Fremont for a week, to visit relatives. Mr. Wark was, we think, very glad to have her back home, for she is a number one cook and housekeeper.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Monin had the surprise of their lives, when a memorial picture of the couple was unveiled at the Canton St. Paul's Parish House, October 12th. This was in recognition of this worthy couple who have worked so faithfully for the Ohio Home for many years, and they have been leader in every good cause for the deaf and the Canton Society for the Deaf. Messrs. Price and Toomey made appropriate addresses and Mrs. B. E. Noble signed "Praise ye the Lord." The 23d Psalm was given by Mrs. Mary Durian. How much better it was to so honor the couple in life, instead of waiting till they had passed away.

Toledo Division, No. 16, N. F. S. D., announces a masquerade party on November 6th.

Supt. Clapham of the Ohio Home reports having sold six hogs, each averaging about two hundred pounds for $9.70 per cwt. and a calf at $16.50 per cwt. These were raised on the Home farm, and it shows that the Ohio deaf chose wisely when they put their Home on a farm.

According to the Ohio Chronicle each graduate of Gallaudet College was asked to give $50 towards the E. M. G. Fund, and each ex-student was to give $25. Although Ohio has exceeded the quota only a few Gallaudettes have done their full share. Those who have are mentioned as: Mr. Robert Patterson (who gave $100), Mr. A. B. Greener, Bessie MacGregor, Ethelburga Zell, Cloa Lamson, Mrs. J. C. Winemiller, Mrs. Wm. H. Zorn, Norbert Pilliod and A. B. Clossen. Mr. Wm. H. Zorn has paid part of his and is finishing on the installment plan.

It does seem as if everyone who attended the college should be loyal enough and grateful enough to subscribe his or her share as asked. Of course, it may be that some are so situated financially that they cannot, but there are many others who can, but do not seem moved to do so.

The Cleveland deaf are to have a bazaar and social at the St. Agnes Mission on November 22d and 23d. This is for the benefit of their church fund. The Cleveland Ladies' Aid Society, which maintains rooms at the Ohio Home, will give a supper at the Mission November 9th. Both affairs are for good causes.

The following explains itself:—

We have held back and given others their say and their appreciation and thanks to those who have had a hand in making the late reunion and centennial celebration the greatest ever.

It is never too late to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to Supt. J. W. Jones, for his ever ready and willingness to co-operate with us, the Executive Committee, in every way to make the record-breaking festivities of all time for the Deaf of Ohio—a record to be proud of, and we want Supt. J. W. Jones to share the glory with the humble Executive Committee.

BUFFALO

Determined to live up to its boasted motto: "Buffalo Never Fails," the October 12th card party held at St. Mary's school under the auspices of Buffalo Division, No. 40, N. F. S. D., in aid of the Local Committee Fund, netted $300 clear profit.

In this connection it may not be remiss to mention the good work James J. Coughlin, as chairman of the local committee is doing, a check up showing that through his own individual effort, he was instrumental in garnering fully eight hundred dollars under his various chairmanships. The very air seems charged with enthusiasm as the Buffalo deaf are pointing toward the next big event—a joint benefit affair—at Elmwood Music Hall, November 16th, given under the auspices of Francis De Sales Society, both the latter society and the Local Committee of the N. A. D. sharing alike, which promises something substantial. It will be another card party, which by the way seems to be a favorite pastime around here.

Chairman James J. Coughlin, now fully recovered from his serious attack of the "flu," which laid him low for nearly a fortnight, is again in his mettle and announces a meeting of the Local Committee to be held the latter part of the month, at which members will render an account of their stewardship, and other matters of interest will be disclosed, and plans for the future discussed.

The secretary reports that a large volume of mail has been received from all parts of the country asking for folders and other information pertaining to convention matters, and if this is any criterion, it augurs a vast attendance at the convention that will tax the hospitality of Buffalo. And then half a dozen European countries have been heard from at this time, and considering that the time of the convention is yet a long way off, it is reasonable to assume that more calls will be made. All this goes to show the tremendous interest the deaf not only in America, but in foreign countries, are taking in the coming convention. "It is appealing in a greater measure to the foreign deaf, because of the honoring of one of their illustrious countrymen, the dedication of the De l'Epee statue, an unparalleled event in deaf annals, which should have the effect of bringing together a more cosmopolitan crowd."

For the past few years it was getting to be customary to read in the papers something like this: Opponents, 60, Gallaudet, 0, not once but two or three times in succession, not forgetting to add the goose eggs for good measure: it became monotonous even to the best well-wisher of the college, why in heck they don't stick to their class? Yet, there seems to be even a law of compensation, for the other day the Associated Press carried the electrifying news: Maryland 13, Gallaudet 7, not only that but Gallaudet came mighty close to winning, too, that would have put the deaf collegians in line for the mythical football championship of the entire country. And who is Maryland you ask, it's the University of Maryland, to be sure, the same one that a year or two ago, defeated mighty Yale by a 15 to 0 score. And even at this time Maryland is meeting the top notchers, like the big four, Georgia Tech, Virginia, Florida, etc. It seems to be a peculiarity of fate that champion teams come to Gallaudet in a cycle of years, just now seems to be one, which is bound to add to its fame.

William O'Neill, of Milwaukee, Wis., who has been in this city, on business for the past several months, has left for Pittsburgh, Pa.

William Klein and wife are expecting to journey to Omaha, Neb., some time this month to attend the wedding of his son, Nathan, an event which then naturally are looking forward with great anticipation and pleasure.

Mrs. J. Schlagter passed away on October 10th, after a long illness. Funeral services were held from St. Mary's chapel, the Rev. Father Gilmore having charge. Our sincere sympathy goes to her husband and children in the loss of a loving wife and mother.

Mr. Eric L. Molin has been reported on sick list for two months, but we are glad to report that he is now fast on the mend.

Miss Eleanor Atwater, of Lockport, was hostess at a Hallowe'en party, October 31st, at the Niagara Falls Sewing Club, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Ulrich, at LaSalle. Prizes were awarded for best costumes and refreshments were served. All reported a most enjoyable time.

NEW YORK

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

Literary Night at the Deaf-Mutes' Union League was resumed on Sunday evening, November 3d, with a fair attendance.

President Samuel Frankenheim opened the meeting, by stating that owing to the advent of the talks, the Deaf-Mutes' Union League intended to hold frequent literary meetings, and after welcoming those present, introduced Mr. John N. Funk, the chairman. Mr. Funk, after a few remarks, invited Mr. Benjamin Friedwald to entertain. Mr. Friedwald recited a story of a perfect wife, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

Next was the "Mirror" act, and the characters were Mr. and Mrs. John N. Funk and Mr. Jack Ebin. As this is to be re-enacted at a future date we refrain from comment, except to say it was a "scream," and some declared it was better than the movies.

Mr. Funk concluded the meeting, which was from 8 to 10 p.m., by giving two short stories of O. Henry, a poem and several pointers on customs of olden times, which are still in vogue today, but slightly changed.

The building where in the Deaf-Mutes' Union League have had their headquarters for the past thirty years, and owned by the Horton Estate, has been sold. The Deaf-Mutes' Union League still holds a four-years' lease. There are some who fear that the building, which includes 138 to 143 West 125th Street, is doomed to be torn down in the near future. But nothing is known what the new owners contemplate about it. The Union League boys have come to call their quarters a second home, and if the buildings are really to be torn down, they indeed feel sorry.

B. H. S. D.

The Brooklyn Hebrew Society for the Deaf had a very interesting meeting on Tuesday, October 29th at the Hebrew Educational Society building, when three speakers from the leading political parties came to present their views and ask for the support of the society.

On Friday evening, November 1st, after the religious services conducted by Louis Cohen, a member of our club, there was a lively discussion on the advisability of learning a trade after primary school days. It was the opinion of a group that learning a good trade gave one more of a chance at getting and keeping a good job.

We are all looking forward to the gym class on Saturday as this is the first time we have had the use of a gymnasium in a public school.

Mr. Sol Garson, he of "lexicographic" fame—and his ever-smiling Lily "elected" to invite some of their many friends to a home-made "Banquet" at their residence. So, on Tuesday evening, November 5th, Election Day, twenty-four of them gathered round a groaning festive board, laden with tempting dishes to delight the most jaded palate. All greatly attested to the fine culinary skill of Lily, though 'tis said that Sol also contributed a share in their preparation, aside from the customary "dough."

Dinner over, lively conversation ensued until well into the night, when the guests departed with high appreciation of the splendid generosity of their hosts.

Those present, besides Mr. and Mrs. Garson, were: Mr. and Mrs. Max Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus L. Kenner, Mr. and Mrs. Moses W. Loew, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Moses, Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Cohen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plapinger, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Krienik, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rapoport, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold A. Cohn, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. H. Friedman, Mrs. Wanda Burke and Mrs. O. Foland.

As this is being written, it is reported that Mrs. Garson is on her way to Baltimore to undergo a minor operation for some nasal trouble. All her friends surely wish her a speedy recovery and hope to see her smiling face in our midst before long.

On Wednesday evening, November 6th, after their regular business meeting in the Union League Hall, the Manhattan Frats nominated the following:—

For President—Nathan Schwartz vs. Moses A. Rosenberg.

For Vice-President—Marcus H. Mark's vs. Moses Schnapp.

For Secretary—John N. Funk vs. Lester Cohen.

For Treasurer—Wm. B. Mellis (by acclamation).

For Director—Joseph Schultz vs. Norman Magnus.

For Sergeant-at-Arms—Benjamin Goldwasser vs. Lester J. Hymans.

For Board of Trustees—Harry Kurz vs. Joseph Goldstein.

John Cunningham died at the Gallaudet Home on Monday, November 4th, at the age of 72 years. He had been an inmate over twenty-five years.

THE MARGRAF CLUB

On Saturday evening, November 2d, the Margraf Club held a very successful affair at St. Ann's Church Guild room.

Games, music, dancing, balloons, confetti and streamers, were enjoyed by A crowd of people who attended it. There were more than two hundred persons. It was called a "Mardi Gras."

The Margraf Club will have an affair at Union League Hall on December 7th. There will be a dancing contest for fine cash prizes, music, free ice-cream and cakes, etc. Admission will be one dollar, but at present, it is seventy-five cents if tickets are bought before the day of the affair. Come everybody and have a lot of fun.

H. A. D.

The Hebrew Association of the Deaf will have its next business meeting at the Community Center of Temple Israel, 210 W. 91st St., between Amsterdam Avenue and Broadway, this Sunday afternoon, November 17th, at 3 p.m. Nominations for officers will be held and other important business transacted.

Dr. Nash's office will also be located at Temple Israel on and after November 15th.

Friday evening services, however, will continue at Temple Enamu-El, 1 East 65th Street, as heretofore.

New Yorkers are always expected to attend affairs given at Philadelphia and the affair given by the Silent Athletic Club of Philadelphia, on November 2d, drew quite a number. The following party went in Moses Schnapp's car: Arthur Taber, Moses Schnapp, Charles Levine, Michael Balukes, Moses A. Rosenberg, Misses Rose Nettie and Jennie Schneider.

In the car belonging to Stanley Tarasuki there were besides the owner Leo Rosenberg, Tom Dellovo, Leopold Epstein, Israel Liebman.

Other New Yorkers seen at the Bal Masque in Philadelphia that evening were: George Sherman, Joseph Kriegshaber, Jack Gelb, Sam Zadra and Betty Flaconrio. From Newark there were F. W. Hoppaugh and A. W. Shaw.

On Sunday, November 3d, Mr. and Mrs. George N. Donovan were pleasantly surprised. Their son and daughter-in-law dropped in to take them for a short motor ride, and stopped at Freeport Yacht Club, L. I., pretending for some hot coffee, and were enchanted at the plans in their honor, meeting most of their relatives there. It was a dinner in honor of their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary. The table was beautifully decorated in silver and gold, with large yellow and white chrysanthemums. All reported having a splendid time. Only relatives of both were present.

Mary Weeks, of the Westchester School for the Deaf, was married to John Spellman, Jr., a Fanwood graduate of 1922, at the St. Ignatius Church, by Rev. Howe, on October 27th. The best man was Eddie Kerwin and the maid of honor was Mary Smith. About three hundred people attended this beautiful ceremony of which were the following: Mr. and Mrs. John Spellman, Jr., Misses Avis Allen, Esther Rosengreen, Mary Smith, Mary Shea and Mr. Eddie Kerwin.

Mr. Alfred Allen then invited the bride party in his car to Lundy's Restaurant, Sheephead Bay, for a wedding supper, after which they motored to the Hotel St. George. The honeymoon was spent at Tarrytown, N. Y.

Benjamin Shafranek after some hesitation has finally agreed to play basketball again with the Clark Settlement boys. This will be his fifth year as a member of this team that has beaten many of New York's best, and he says that the chances are that the Clarks will again be among the best this year.

Joe Borowick is again in Chicago. This time he did not say anything on leaving to his friends in New York. He writes that he has a good job as a cutter and also that he likes to live in Chicago, but adds that next summer when he gets his vacation he will come direct to New York City. Joe's love for New York is sincere, don't you think so, too!

On Wednesday evening, November 27th (Thanksgiving Eve), there will be a Barn Dance at the Union League Hall, under the auspices of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League. An orchestra will furnish good dance music. As for prizes, there will be several worth evening for. The committee in charge, headed by Charlie Sussman, have and are still making arrangements, which will surpass anything heretofore seen in this Hall.

The Separates, Jr., a deaf-mute basketball team, played the Carlton, Jr.s, a colored team, at the Y. M. C. A. court in Flatbush recently. The Carlton team led the Separates in the first half by the score of 9 to 4, and the Separates team lead the Carlton team by the score 6 to 2 in the second half, losing by the score 11 to 10.

Mrs. Katherine McMickle, whose address is 16 Pierson Cottage (Box 1453), Middletown, N. Y., wants to get a place at housework. She is a deaf-mute and was a pupil at Fanwood many years ago.

Adolph Pfeiffer is in Boston to stay for a couple of weeks. He is stopping at the Hotel Statler, Park Square.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Renner, of New York City, were recent visitors at Gallaudet College. Mr. Renner, being the printing instructor at the Fanwood School, was much interested in the printing plant. Mrs. Renner, who was Cecelia Wilson of the Vancouver, Wash., school, was delighted to meet nine of her schoolmates who are now students at Gallaudet College. Mr. and Mrs. Renner were the dinner guests of President and Mrs. Hall on Thursday evening.

When Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Cohen were in Lakewood last month, they called on Miss Ida Frank, as also did Dr. and Mrs. Nies and children. Miss Frank is always glad to have friends call when motoring. Her residence is at 319 Fourth Street, Lakewood, N. J.

Edwin S. Mosbacher, who lives in Woodmere, is an expert basketmaker and caner. He has called forty-two chairs up to date and also makes hampers and trays and has many orders for trays.

The Bronx Frats too will hold sway on Thanksgiving Eve with a 'Thanksgiving Party. For details see their advertisement on fourth page of this paper.

Miss Ida Katz, a former pupil at Fanwood, died on Monday, November 4th, after a lingering illness.

Golf pool has been the rage the past two weeks at the rooms of the Deaf-Mutes' Union League. Eddie Baum started it.

D. McLean, of Washington, D. C., has been in the city for some time now, and if the job he has secured proves to be steady, he intends to send for his family and live here permanently.

Alfred E. Barry, of Freeport, L. I., spent the week-end of November 9th as the guest of the Osmond Loews.

On November 2d, 1929, Rebecca Hartz, a former Fanwood student, became engaged to Gerald Cerone, of the Westchester School for the Deaf.

Florian Caliguin, a recent graduate of the Florida school at St. Augustine, is living in Brooklyn, and says he will make that city his permanent abode.

PHILADELPHIA

News items for this column should be sent to James Reider, 1538 North Dover Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Naucy Moore invited a number of friends to her apartments at 240 W. Walnut Lane, Germantown, in honor of Rev. Robert C. Fletcher, on Friday evening, November 1st. Rev. Mr. Fletcher was called by his Bishop to begin work in his Southern field at once, so that he had to leave here rather abruptly, and it was on this account that Mrs. Moore provided the opportunity for a farewell gathering. But unfortunately her apartments were not large enough to hold all the friends of her honor guest and therefore the invitations were necessarily limited.

Spring-like weather prevailed all day, which added to the pleasure of attending the occasion in the evening, and a most pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present. The guests further manifested their good-will by presenting Rev. Mr. Fletcher with a small purse, for a farewell gift, which, needless to say, he appreciated and thanked them for.

After dainty refreshments had been served, a spinning game was introduced, but there was not time for more games and the affair ended before midnight.

It would be superfluous to say that Mrs. Moore's hospitality on this occasion was greatly enjoyed by all present, and Mrs. Mabel Wilson also deserves mention for her able assistance.

Besides those mentioned above, the following attended the enjoyable affair: Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Smaltz, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Stover and daughter, Miss Helen M. Stover; Mrs. Marie Shute; Mr. Finis Renau; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Sanders; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stevens; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Salter; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Rodgers; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. S. Reider; Mesdames Emma J. Dantzer, Alice E. Breen, Robert MacNeill, and Misses Mamie I. Hess, Gertrude N. Downey and Lillian Leamy.

On the day after the event Rev. Mr. Fletcher started for the South, stopping at Baltimore with the Rev. O. I. Whildin, with whom he conducted regular services in that city on Sunday.

Miss Frieda Hauske, of Camden, N. J., and Mr. John Marsden, of our city, both former pupils of the Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, were united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony, Saturday, October 19th, at the residence of Rev. Edward F. Kaercher who officiated. The ceremony was witnessed by the groom's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marsden, and Dr. and Miss Edna Kaercher.

On Sunday, November 3d, Rev. Kaercher held Holy Communion services at Wilks-Barre and Scranton. On Monday, November 4th, he journeyed from Scranton to New York and visited the Rev. Dr. F. H. Knubel, president of the United Lutheran Church, and Rev. Paul West, colored pastor of the Lutheran Church of The Transfiguration in Harlem, N. Y. Rev. West and Rev. Kaercher became acquainted with each other while they were students at the Mt. Airy Theological Seminary. During the sojourn, Rev. Kaercher stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carr, the former graduating with Rev. Kaercher at the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf in 1920.

The following is the schedule of services at St. Philip's (Lutheran) Church for the balance of this month:—

November 10th. Regular service at 3 p. m. November 24th. Third Anniversary Service of St. Philip's Church at 3 p. m.

The Lutherans will hold a Thanksgiving social in the basement of the Church of the Transfiguration, Lehigh Avenue near Twelfth street, on Saturday evening, November 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wallwork celebrated their 32d wedding anniversary by inviting a few friends to spend the evening with them at their home near Fox Chase, which is at the extreme northern end of this city. They served refreshments and a very pleasant evening was passed.

Superintendent Manning of the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf was a visitor in the city in the latter part of October. He was accompanied by his wife, and the trip both ways was made by automobile.

Both the Home for the Aged and Infirm Deaf at Torresdale, and All Souls' Church for the Deaf will benefit by the will of the late John P. Walker, according to announcement in the papers.

The following will be of interest to the older graduates of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf, where Mr. Cadbury was superintendent for a number of years during the Principalship of the late Josuha Foster. When the late Dr. Crouter succeeded Mr. Foster as head of the school his official designation was changed to that of Superintendent, instead of Principal. Mr. Cadbury was only superintendent of the household department, for which the term now used is Steward.

The funeral of Richard Tapper Cadbury, former trust officer of the Provident Life and Trust Company, who died Tuesday at his home in Haverford was held this afternoon.

Mr. Cadbury, who was seventy-seven, was regarded as the dean of trust officials in this city. He helped to establish the trust department of the Provident Company and was connected with it for many years.

Mr. Cadbury married Miss Helen Virginia Nathans, of this city, who died several years ago. He was graduated from Haverford College in 1872 and from Harvard University in 1877. He is survived by four children, Earl S. Cadbury, Mrs. H. Cadbury Bush, Haverford; Miss Leah T. Cadbury, Keene, N. H., and Richard T. Cadbury, Jr., Indianapolis.

The services were held in the Friends' Meeting House, Haverford, with interment in the Southwestern Friends' Burial Ground.—Philadelphia Inquirer, of last week.

Mr. E. G. Peterson, a teacher at the Mt. Airy School, gave current events before the Clerc Literary Association last Thursday evening, November 7th.

Fire in the chimney of a two-story dwelling at 5043 Reno Street, near Fifth and Parrish Streets, drove a family of deaf-mutes to the street early last evening, but caused only minor damage to the house.

We extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. Thelma Stewart, older daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Herbert C. Merrill, of Syracuse, N. Y., on the death of her husband, Mr. John Stewart, on October 28th last, after nearly three years illness from diabetes, at his parents home near Vernon, N. Y. His parents are aged deaf-mutes. Mrs. Stewart may make her home with her parents in the near future. She has two children.

The oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Allen was removed to the Municipal Hospital suffering from Scarlet fever.

An entertainment will be given in All Souls' Parish House on Thanksgiving Day in the evening. It will comprise stage features and end with moving pictures. Admission will be for a quarter. The program is being arranged.

Gallaudet College's grid team was completely routed by the Temple University team in Philadelphia on Saturday, 9th. The score was 31 to 0.

The annual O. W. L. S. banquet in honor of the new members was held this year on Saturday, October the nineteenth, at seven P.M., in the Y. W. C. A. building on 17th and K Streets, N. W. . . . Six new members were welcomed to the Sorority. These six were: Josephine Beesley, '31; Rae Martino, '32; Angelia Watson, '32; May Koehn, '33; Lucile Jackson, '33; and Rosella Gunderson, '33.

A menu was served as follows:—

Baked Ham Fruit Cup
Glazed Sweet Potatoes
Buttered Cauliflower
Rolls Butter
Head Lettuce Salad
Thousand Isle Dressing
Ice Cream Cake
Mints Nuts
Coffee

Velma Brassell, '30, was the toast-mistress. The following toasts were offered:—

True Sisterhood Mrs. Hannan, '27
"The crest and crowning of all good,
Life's final star is sisterhood."

Welcome, Old and New Dorothy Denlinger, '30

Response Angelia Watson, '32

Forth from the Waiting, we come:
"Somewhere above us, elusive ether,
Waits the fulfillment of our dearest dreams!"

Women in the Tropics Mrs. Parks

Later the floor was cleared for dancing; stunts were executed for the amusement of all present. The evening ended with a bus ride back to Kendall Green.

A meeting of the Young Men's Literary Society was held in Chapel Hall on Friday evening, October 25th, at seven-thirty o'clock. The chief speaker of the evening was Dr. H. D. Drake, who gave us one of the most unusual talks on "Weather" that we have ever listened to. As the critic afterwards remarked so appropriately, "It can only be pleasant weather when Dr. Drake is with me."

Dr. Drake's talk was followed by the debate: "Resolved, That the United States should cancel her naval war debts." The debaters on the affirmative side were Ivan Curtis, '33, and Earl Sollenberger, P. C. Those on the negative side were Harold Larsen, '33, and Loy Golladay, P. C. The affirmative side was victorious.

A short dialogue, "Stamps," was given by Joseph Lowitz, '30, and Stephen Kozlar, P. C. Following this was a declamation by Henry Holter, '30, "Where the West Begins." Howard T. Hofstetter, '30, filled the office of critic.

After the meeting there was an informal dance in the Young Men's Rectory. An enjoyable time was had by all.

On Saturday, October the twentieth, Gallaudet scored an overwhelming victory in a swift and decisive game with the Shenandoah College football team. The game ended in a score of 80-0.

That night the victory was celebrated by a party of young men and women students who went out for refreshments and dancing. The evening was a pleasurable one to all concerned.

When the goblins began to roam abroad and witches to ride gayly through the air on broomsticks, a large percentage of the Gallaudetians found themselves uptown in the midst of the revelry. All sorts of strange characters paraded the streets that night; there was dancing, accompanied by the roar of traffic, the laughter of the mob, and a general hullabaloo. Refreshments were bought; and then, tired, but happy, the weary students trooped back to Kendall Green bravely looking forward to facing "The Morning After the Night Before."

Gallaudet won a victory over the University of Baltimore, 6-0, in an exciting game on Hotchkiss Field, Saturday, November 2d. The single touchdown throughout the closely contested game was made by Paul Zieske, '31, who deftly caught a forward pass and brought the ball down past the goal line. Quite a crowd of outsiders attended the game, and the excitement rose to a fever pitch as the game wore on. Many were the breath-taking moments during the play; loud was the applause when the final whistle blew. We feel that our team deserved the plaudits of all.

The belated Halloween party of the college students came off on the night of that eventful Saturday from eight to ten. In gala array the Kendall Greeners gathered in the "Old Jim" for two hours of fun. There were games, dances and prizes. Cider flowed freely, apples danced in the air, and, in fact, everything and everyone was as gay as could be imagined. The only regret entertained by the students was that the party ended so quickly.

DETROIT

News items intended for this column should be sent to Mrs. Lucy E. May, 2534 Ottawa St., Detroit, Mich. Such news items from Detroiters and vicinity as well as from the deaf of Michigan will be most welcome and have prompt attention.

Miss Lillian A. Bainer, a graduate of Gallaudet, and recently a resident of New York City, is here for an indefinite stay with her former classmate, Mrs. Margaret Darling, and her hearing sister, Miss Ida Bainer, of East Second Boulevard.

A miscellaneous shower party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Davies on October 25th, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilhelm. About twenty people were invited and reported having a lovely time.

Rev. Franklin Smielau gave a very interesting sermon, at St. John's Chapel, on October 20th. He was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Heymansson over night.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John Hellers, and some more friends of Detroit, went to Toledo to a surprise birthday party at Mr. and Mrs. John Curry's, in honor of Mrs. Curry, on October 12th. They had a very pleasant time.

Mr. Louis Stone, of Boston, Mass., visited the D. A. D. Club last week. He expects to go to Chicago for a visit.

One of the friends of the club, Miss Viola Murphy, was quietly married on October 19th (Saturday evening at 7), at the Universalist Church, by the Rev. F. D. Adams, to Mr. Elmer C. Stare, of Philadelphia, Pa. The bridal party consisted of four. Miss Emma Zielke was bridesmaid, and a friend of the groom, Mr. Otto Kruger, acted as best man. After the service at the church the party drove to the home of the couple, where a wedding dinner was served to nine. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Grow, Dr. O. E. Starr, brother of the groom, Mr. David Beehring, Mrs. Emma Froehlich, Mr. L. B. Long, who gave the bride away.

After October 20th, the couple will be at home to friends at 16124 Snowden Avenue, Detroit. The couple received a member of very lovely and useful gifts.

A son of Mr. McKenzie intended to drive to Port Huron last Saturday. On their way, a car without lights struck Mr. McKenzie's car and it skidded into the ditch. All of the six people jumped out of the car, and were not seriously hurt. Only their clothes were torn. Miss Flora McKenzie jumped and bounced four times. She was not badly hurt.

The clubs were prettily decorated with Halloween trimmings. At the D. A. D. there was Halloween mask ball on October 26th. About fifty people were masked. The judges were Mr. McNulty, Mrs. Stottler, of Pontiac, Mr. Hayes, Miss Sloane. The winners were Mrs. Bleil, first prize for beauty, Miss Mann, in Gypsy costume, and Miss Latondress.

Mr. Finnegan and Mr. John Cole in scare crow costume, and Mr. Jean in devil costume.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris, of Flint, were guests of the Cadillac Association of the Deaf on Saturday evening, October 26th. They acted as judges for the mask ball. Miss Behrendt in a witch costume won the first prize. Mr. Peter Hellers, for the gentlemen, won the first prize, with a comical costume.

On October 12th, a mock wedding social dinner was given at the D. A. D. Mrs. Latondress acted as a bride, Mrs. Roeder was a bridegroom. Mrs. Gattson acted as a farmer, father of the bride, Mrs. Russon as an old mother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Kabisch had the role of minister. Miss Ciero, a flower girl, Miss Marie May, a bridesmaid, Mrs. Mayer, a best man, Miss Paul, a ring bearer. The play was full of wit, thrills and laughter. The club was prettily decorated with white trimmings and a large bell was hung in the centre of the room. Everyone was presented with a white artificial flower. There were 250 present.

Cash prizes were given to Mr. and Mrs. H. Gottlieb (39 years), Mr. and Mrs. Gottsworth (36 years), for longest married couples.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cole (June 22, 1927), the most recently married. Five couples claimed the prize for the largest family, each having six children. Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Ivor Friday, and Mrs. Hayes, recently of Chicago. Each couple received a prize and Mr. Hayes received an extra prize for year-old twins.

Paul Stemplousky won the prize for the newest baby, a girl three weeks old.

Asa Stustman's story about his wedding day, took a prize, which he generously turned over to the Club's Christmas Fund.

The judges erred in awarding the prizes for the wedding clothes. Man-like, they selected a beautifully preserved wedding dress, thirty years old, as the worst, because it was "funny style," while they passed up a five-year dress—a shabby housedress.

Mrs. L. Berthiaume, a bride of a year, won the prize for the best. She was the only one who wore her veil, therefore, was the most bride-like to the masculine eyes of the judges. Ralph Beaver was the only man who had the courage to wear what was left of his wedding suit.

The club presented a pretty boudoir lamp to Mr. and Mrs. John Cole; and a beautiful floor lamp to Mr. and Mrs. Pensford.

The ladies of the D. A. D. will give an entertainment at the club rooms, on November 16th, at 8 o'clock in the night, sharp. The name is: "A Meeting of the Old Maids' Matrimonial Club." A play full of humor, beauty and thrills. If you miss this show, you will have a lifetime in which to regret it.

A feather party will be given at D. A. D. on November 24th. Tickets are on sale now.

On November 24th there will be a social, given by the Catholic Association of the Deaf, at Holy Redeemer Chapel on Junction. Everybody is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cordano, from St. Joseph, Mich., were honor guests at a surprise party celebrating their tenth wedding anniversary, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams, North Burdick Street, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Moses Graff, assisted the hosts, and covers for sixty guests were laid. Mr. and Mrs. Cordano were presented with many gifts.

MRS. L. MAY.

SCHOOL FOR DEAF AT SASKATOON

The pleasing part about the new cabinet in the Saskatchewan government under the leadership of Hon. Dr. J. T. M. Anderson is that it includes Hon. Howard McConnell, who has been made provincial treasurer and minister of municipal affairs. Hon. Mr. McConnell is the same gentleman, who was a kind friend to Rupert Williams, and gave assistance and advice in any manner to further the work of the Western Canada Association of the deaf, and to examine the school for the deaf established in the province of Saskatchewan. Mr. McConnell was the only legislator to fully study the new act covering the education of the deaf, and to examine the comments made on some by prominent American Schools for the Deaf superintendents, and was also the only man to speak at length on the needs of the deaf at the last sessions of the legislature. Mr. Williams feels that the deaf of the West have a worthy friend and supporter of their cause in Hon. Howard McConnell. Hats off to Premier Anderson for selecting such a good citizen to his cabinet.

A conference, which will no doubt benefit the proposed Saskatchewan school for the Deaf, was held between Premier J. T. M. Anderson and his cabinet ministers and representatives of the Western Canada Association of the Deaf in the Legislative Council Chambers in Regina, Sask., on Friday, October 4th.

The delegation were given a courteous hearing and the Premier and his ministers evinced much interest in the education of the deaf by questioning the delegates on various matters which would have to be dealt with as progress is made in building the school. The real purpose of the delegation's visit was to follow up the resolution passed at the organization's convention last June in Vancouver, requesting that the proposed school be established near the University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon, Sask. After hearing the delegates' eloquent appeals the Premier stated that the site for the proposed school would be announced shortly. He also declared it was his government's intention to make the school the best of its kind in the west, if not in all Canada. Furthermore, he stated that he wanted the right type of teachers and staff. The delegation expressed pleasure when the Premier invited assistance from the organization in suggesting the type of equipment, of the staffs, and plan of buildings.

Amendments to the present act were asked for by R. J. D. Williams, chairman of the Saskatchewan Committee, to whom Premier Anderson replied that if the committee drew up a suggested act, consideration would be given the desired amendments. Mr. Williams was also promised a list of all persons applying for the position of superintendent.

Those representing the Western Canada Association of the Deaf, were Charles W. White, president; A. H. McDonald, treasurer; both of Winnipeg; and R. J. R. Williams, Saskatoon, Sask. Mrs. C. J. Macphail, of the Manitoba School for the Deaf, teaching staff, proved an efficient interpreter.

Harry Willie, a deaf linotype operator for the weekly Republican at Delavan, Wis., left for Minnesota by auto with three other deafs to see the football games between the Wisconsin and Minnesota deaf school teams. After arriving there he was taken ill, and his condition would not permit his returning home, so he was taken to a hospital to have an operation performed for appendicitis. Word from the hospital states he is improving.

The teachers of the Wisconsin deaf school attended the State Teachers' Convention in Milwaukee, Wis., Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Miss K. Williams, Mrs. Eva Kaisermann, Miss L. Williams, Miss Gwendolyn Bray and Mrs. Dover Lowe, put on demonstration of their work at the convention.

Mrs. H. Odom gives the following news about the doings of the colored deaf:—

Mrs. Emma Hunt and little son, Ralph, Jr., who have been here for some time, have returned to Detroit, Mich.

Mr. A. L. Grant lost his grandfather last week, death being due to infirmities of old age, he having reached the ripe age of eighty-four.

Mr. Robert Shepherd and Mrs. Mary B. Mattingley were united in holy bonds of matrimony last Thursday evening, at the M. E. Church, Rev. Hasenstab officiating.

A whist party was given at Mrs. H. Odom's apartment on Indiana Avenue last Saturday night, and Mrs. Grant again, with Mr. C. B. Poole as her partner, carried off first prize.

CHICAGO

Frank T. Randall, aged seventy-two, passed away Tuesday, October 29th, at 7 A.M., following a second stroke of paralysis. The funeral was held from the Furman Undertaking Home, Irving Park Boulevard, and Albany Street, and burial was at Irving Park Cemetery, Rev. Hasenstab and his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Elmes, officiated.

The deceased was born in Wisconsin and educated at the State School for the Deaf at Delavan. His widow will make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Palmer. His father was a former governor of the State long ago.

A report from Kansas is to the effect that the Kansas deaf school defeated the Iowa deaf school under the coaching of Luther Taylor, known over the world long ago as the famous Dummy Taylor, in an annual football game by a score of 37 to 6, October 26th.

It also states that Jackie Fields knocked out Dummy Mahan in the second round of a scheduled ten round fight at Kansas City Monday, November 4th.

Alfred Arnot and U. Kendall handed the writer their renewals to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL. Mr. Arnot likes to hear from his old deaf friends in Portland, Ore., to Seattle, Wash., where he formerly worked, through the JOURNAL.

The E. S. Association had a monthly business meeting at the Ephpheta Club house Sunday, November 3d, at 4 P.M., with the usual attendance, and it was announced there would be no meeting on Sunday, December 1st, on account of a Christmas sale on that date. It was postponed to Sunday, January 5, 1930.

The Hebrew deaf club should be said to hold the fifth annual dance and ball on Saturday, December 7th, for its club fund, instead of the Deaf-Mutes' JOURNAL of October 31st.

Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy afforded diversion to a company of guests at their home Sunday, November 3d, in honor of Mr. Murphy's sister's departure for Wisconsin for a visit with her brother. Social conversation and telling funny stories followed a sumptuous supper.

A charity ball is announced, for the benefit of the Illinois Home for the Aged and Infirm Deaf, for January 21, 1930. Particulars follow in due time.

The Frats, No. 1, will hold a bunco and card party at the Capital Building Saturday, November 23d, instead of November 24th, which falls on Sunday, as stated in the September Frat.

The Pas-a-Pas Club held a "500" and bunco party, under the management of Charles Martin, Saturday, November 2d, with a good attendance.

WISCONSIN NOTES

The Wisconsin deaf school team journeyed last Saturday to McHenry, Ill., to play football against the McHenry High School.

Three of the best players of the State school team have been confined to the hospital from injuries received in previous games.

The Southern Wisconsin Association of Nurses held their meeting at the State School for the Deaf at Delavan, Wis., last Saturday afternoon. Miss K. Williams, a teacher at the deaf school, put on a demonstration of her work.

T. E. Bray, superintendent of the Wisconsin deaf school, and Miss Williams went to Watertown, Wis., last Tuesday, to give a demonstration with five pupils of the State school before the Women's Club of that city.

The enrollment at the Wisconsin State School for the Deaf is 204 this year. This is the largest enrollment recorded at the State Deaf School for the past quarter of a century.

Harry Willie, a deaf linotype operator for the weekly Republican at Delavan, Wis., left for Minnesota by auto with three other deafs to see the football games between the Wisconsin and Minnesota deaf school teams. After arriving there he was taken ill, and his condition would not permit his returning home, so he was taken to a hospital to have an operation performed for appendicitis. Word from the hospital states he is improving.

The teachers of the Wisconsin deaf school attended the State Teachers' Convention in Milwaukee, Wis., Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Miss K. Williams, Mrs. Eva Kaisermann, Miss L. Williams, Miss Gwendolyn Bray and Mrs. Dover Lowe, put on demonstration of their work at the convention.

The Capital City

November 2d was the hottest November day in years.

Gallaudet College grounds were thronged with excited persons visibly oppressed by unusual heat.

Mr. and Mrs. William Renner, of New York City, were among them, and they witnessed Gallaudet defeating a hard-fighting University of Baltimore eleven, 6 to 0, in a hotly contested football game.

Gallaudet boys started well since college opened and they are good players now.

The streets of Washington were transformed into a fairy paradise as the Capital made Halloween whoopee Thursday night, October 31st.

Mr. and Mrs. William Renner were awed and thought that nowhere else in the Nation probably was All Saints' ever celebrated as it was in Washington, D. C., for Halloween is to Washington what election night is to New York, or Mardi Gras week to New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. William Renner witnessed the parade in F Street, and it was headquarters for the thousands of bizarre-costumed merry-makers who strutted their stuff from dusk until after midnight. That night the Renners, it is said, had a night-mare Saturday night, November 2d, was a favorable night for the ladies of the card club. According to the moon friendly aspects were formed during the part of the evening.

Festoons of black and orange hung from the ceiling and around the walls black cats, witches and pumpkin lanterns associated with Halloween had their part in the decorations.

Mrs. Alley, the chairman lady of the house, was dressed as an Italian in colorful costume in keeping with the holiday. There were five card tables and the players were: Mr. and Mrs. Alley, Mr. and Mrs. Boswell, Mr. and Mrs. Quinley, Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. D. Smoak, Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Colby, Mrs. Duvall, Miss Nanney and Mr. W. Edington and Mr. Eskin.

Mrs. Boswell and Mr. Quinley won the first prizes, the former, a box of perfume, the latter, a box of candy.

Mrs. D. Smoak and Mr. Alley were consoled with a penny.

At the opening of the party, an alphabetical puzzle was held and Mrs. Parker solved it correctly, being awarded a lovely framed picture. It being Halloween time, a big barrel of sweet cider (Virginia made) and a basketful of fresh homemade doughnuts were served.

Riotous fun? Yes, it was! Mr. Gerald Ferguson whipped in two dollars for a year's subscription to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL. Thank you.

On Friday night, November 1st, there were several parties held in the city among the deaf.

When the writer learned of the presence of Mr. and Mrs. William Renner and baby, of New York City, in the city, she excused herself from attending these parties. She fixed up a party at 515 Ingraham in their honor. She phoned to twenty homes and some of them arrived with bells on to greet the New York visitors. Gee! What a party we had for them! It was the biggest thrill in our lives. They were feted all right. Two kinds of games were played.

A list of advertising was guessed. Mr. William Renner and Mrs. Edwin Isaacson captured first prizes, and each was awarded a box of linen handkerchiefs.

On Lotta, Mrs. Tracy and Mr. Alley won the first prizes. Each received a box of linen handkerchiefs. Ice-cream and cake were served.

After Sunday of November 3d, Mr. and Mrs. William Renner and baby were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Alley. They visited Arlington, the Capitol, Congressional Library, and other buildings.

The Renner baby was the pet of the deaf community during their stay in the city. They left Tuesday, November 5th, for home in New York City.

The D. C. Chapter of Gallaudet College Alumni Association resumed activities by meeting with President/ Krug and Miss Edith N. Nelson, the Chapter's secretary and treasurer, on the night of October 30th. Prof. W. Krug, Miss Nelson and Miss R. C. Atkins were all re-elected to their respective offices—President, Secretary-Treasurer and Vice-President.

A large number of the members was on hand and enjoyed the hospitality of Prof. Krug and Miss Nelson, and also had the pleasure of listening to a fine lecture by Mr. Kalidas Bhattacharjee a normal student from India.

Mrs. Philip R. Vernier left for Detroit, Saturday afternoon, November 2d, to visit her sister, Mrs. Alfred Heide.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Alley entertained Gallaudet co-eds, Misses Dyer, Bush and Watson, to a ride Sunday October 28th.

Miss Viola Servold, of South Dakota in the Preparatory Class of Gallaudet College, was invited to dinner at Mrs. K. J. Stewart's home, Sunday, October 28th, and spent the afternoon in sightseeing.

Miss Edith Nelson, of Gallaudet College, is expecting her friend, Miss Florence Lewis, of New York, to visit her at some week-end of this month.

Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Parker, goes to Kindergarten School, and she is thrilled with her study. Her oldest brother, Hunter, is in the First Grade.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Smoak won the prize for the prettiest costume at the Halloween party given by the teachers of Kendall Green School, Thursday evening, October 31st.

Mrs. P. Deshbaroner, Mrs. E. Freeman and Mrs. C. Johnston, all of Virginia, were visiting at the Scott home the past week.

A birthday party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bernsdorf, in honor of her husband on Friday evening of November 1st. Old friends were present and a supper was served. Mr. Bernsdorf was remembered with many nice gifts. Congratulations.

Rev. Mr. H. L. Tracy preached an interesting sermon of "Human Coins" on Sunday night, November 3d. Mr. and Mrs. William Renner attended the services. They met friends and acquaintances at the church.

On the evening of November 3d, Rev. Mr. A. I. Bryant preached on "Abraham, Father of the Faithful," at the Baker Hall. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Renner were present and enjoyed the pastor's eloquence. The deaf congregation was glad to meet Mr. and Mrs. William Ren
